The Letters of Naftali Tiger Naftali Tiger

Truly, my fellow brothers, it is better to have spoken words of dissent that fell on deaf ears and died for them than to have never spoken against the lawlessness of the world and the One who defies the true God of Israel. If somehow, by these simple unintelligible words, I can convince just one more person to read the read the Torah for themselves –I will have served my purpose in this life and would consider my life to have been lived in full regardless of any earthly circumstances by which I have lived. God bless the soul that reads this and decides to go read the Torah for themselves instead and throws this book in the garbage at the same time that they do.
