To Live and Die in Dixie (Callahan Garrity) Mary Kay Andrews

Mary Kay Andrews brings back cleaning lady and sleuth Callahan Garrity in the whodunit To Live and Die in Dixie.

Former Atlanta police officer Callahan is known for scrubbing all kinds of muck, but she has no idea what she's getting herself into when she is hired by Elliott Littlefield, a notorious Atlanta antiques dealer.

Right from the start, Callahan's job turns into a lively quest to find a priceless Civil War diary penned by an infamous madam. Soon Callahan and her team become entangled with a motley group of Civil War collectors, right-wing extremists, and nosy teens, making the case messier and tougher to clean.

The witty Callahan Garrity mysteries by Mary Kay Andrews always entertains and delight.

Yvonne Speight:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
