A Time To Give Thanks - Kit with CD Teresa Jennings

November is a time when Americans reflect on those things for which we are grateful, just as the Pilgrims did. These songs in this collection help students make connections across the curriculum and it can be used as a Thanksgiving Revue with the script that is included.

A Time To Give Thanks includes:

Gratitude Attitude - This lively Latin song helps students think about what they are grateful for in this unison melody.

Mashed Potatoes - Keep kids moving with this boogie woogie celebrating mashed potatoes, a common staple of holiday meals.

Pilgrims - Set in a gentle, folk style, this unique story song is a tribute to the brave people who crossed the Atlantic in 1620. Narration is included for an optional cross-curricular program.

Thankful For The U.S.A. - Arranged in a Nashville rock styl, this inspirational song is great for Thanksgiving or any time of the year.

Thanksgiving Day - This is a simple, reflective, secular song about Thanksgiving with an optional recorder part included.

The Turkey Woogie - Kids have a ball singing and moving to this lively song. It's easy to sing and it comes with movement instructions and a sizzling big band accompaniment.

We Are Thankful - There's no season for gratitude, and this folk, gospel tune is ideal for celebrating Thanksgiving or any other event that calls for gratitude or appreciation.

The Teacher's Handbook has piano/vocal printed music, teaching notes, lyrics, and student parts. The CD has both full performance and accompaniment only (instrumental) tracks. Ownership of the printed material grants permission to reproduce all music and other reproducibles for use with all your students.
