David Montgomery owns his own software and database company in Chicago, making money, hand over fist. The only thing missing is someone to share it with. That is until he is blindsided by the beauty on a horse. While attending his sister's wedding, to a man he didn't really know or trust, David meets the Cowgirl, Evelyn Elliot.

Evie, as she is called at home, can't believe the reaction she is having to this city boy. She has no intention of leaving the ranch or her horses for a life in the crowded noisy city with a man who will just abuse her and her trust. What is a girl to do when her heart is split in two?
