The Business Side of Escorting II: The Escort's Guide to Intelligently Running Her Business in The Cyber Age JD Roberts

The Business Side of Escorting was widely accepted as the first book to offer escorts professional guidance in successfully running their small businesses in a professional manner.

The Business Side of Escorting II elevates the discussion of running the provider's business to the next level and includes many new topics requested by providers including:

- Laws affecting providers: The Mann Act, The Bank Security Act, Forfeiture laws and others,
- The evolution of the High Dollar/Multiple Hour Provider, Long Term Discreet Date and compatibility screening,
- Money laundering,
- Stalking and dangerous clients and how to handle them,
- Information for providers from other countries wishing to tour in the United States,
- Additional tax issues as they apply to the provider,
- Case studies of providers that have run afoul of the law and,
- How to select a Certified Public Accountant to prepare taxes, a Certified Financial Planner to help you begin an investment program and a photographer to provide the most important part of your marketing effort—your photos ... and more.

The Business Side of Escorting II is the “Gold Standard” by which all other books dealing with the business of escorting are measured.
