In this second book of the 'Rose' trilogy, we find Rose enjoying her life in London, 1934, with her new found family. All is going well until Rose meets her mysterious new friend, Dan, while on an exciting trip to Scotland with Maria. Peter has been her knight in shining armour from the day they met and Rose always thought it would be him she would marry, and so had most of her friends and family. What will happen? Who will Rose choose? What will the consequences of her actions be? Share this journey with Rose as she tries to sort out what her true feelings are, and see if she can get her 'happily ever after'.
