Justice is Served: Volume One (Volume 1) Mr. Anthony K. Wright

In this final installment of the Harry Potter saga the battle with Voldemort has been fought and won, but at a great cost. Many of Harry's friends lay dead, dying or injured and most of Hogwarts is destroyed. Harry himself is exhausted and as he takes a much deserved rest visitors arrive at the Hogwarts' gates, Americans. Led by the young Alpha Warlock, Justice Cain, they have arrived to join the fight. Having missed the battle they stay to assist in the restoration of the school. With the school rebuilt the Ministry names Professor McGonagall the new Headmistress and approves the school to reopen its doors and allow the likes of Harry, Hermione and Ron to complete their final year. The American's, having lost their coven to an attack from evil Muggles and powerful Dark wizards, are invited to stay on to complete the teaching staff and join the other students for an exciting school year. Their safety, however, is once again threatened as an ancient threat reemerges in the form of perhaps the most deadly Dark Lord of all time, Alucard. But Justice, who feels he was born for but one purpose, to defend his coven from any impending evil, is up for the challenge. With a very unique set of skills, he prepares the staff and students to survive an inevitable attack. His charms leave Hermione torn between her feelings for Harry and her new found feelings for Mr. Cain. Several new students and staff members lend a hand in defending the castle and Justice ends up paying the ultimate price to ensure his new friends' safety.
