The Giver: The Review

This is a review on Lois Lowry novel The GIVER.

The question of perfection, and that of happiness, sameness, and a life free of pain, humans have vied to answer such thing. The "Community" had all the answers, and everything was remedied, as per the "rules." And yet, things hueless, same, and calculated couldn't quite "do" it! The "Community" had to cling to Memory as a totality. And Memory needs humans, real human beings! There are the pages of hardwired messages, and then the blank pages of start, they all exist in humans. This is a story about a lad meeting intangible reality. And he had to make decisions of titanic magnitude. Let us indeed walk through the story. Let us explore the inner thoughts. The riddles, answers, and the entire picture await your discovery! Though a bit of a spoiler, The Review actually represents a discerning definitive of the actual novel. Read The Review to find out. Happy reading. Enjoy!
