Manual de Historia Política y Social de España (1808-2011) (Spanish Edition) Santos Julià, Miguel Martorell

Esta obra se trata de un manual de historia contemporánea de España para la asignatura impartida por los autores en la UNED. Abarca desde el inicio de la revolución liberal, en 1808, hasta la primera década del siglo XXI. No encontrará aquí el lector noticia de los grandes debates historiográficos ni de las distintas interpretaciones acerca de cada periodo, sino una narración documentada y razonada de los principales acontecimientos políticos y procesos sociales, de los regímenes y de las constituciones y sistemas de partidos que se han sucedido durante estos dos siglos. Una narración que, recurriendo a la política como hilo conductor, aborda también las grandes transformaciones económicas y sociales.

El texto se divide en ocho capítulos. Miguel Martorell es autor de los cuatro primeros, que comprenden desde el inicio de la revolución liberal, en 1808, hasta la caída de Alfonso XIII en 1931. Santos Julià ha escrito los otros cuatro, que abarcan desde la proclamación de la Segunda República hasta los cambios sociales acaecidos en las tres últimas décadas. Aunque se trata de un texto dirigido a estudiantes universitarios, esperamos que también pueda ser útil para todo lector interesado en conocer la reciente historia española.
