All my senses crackled with energy, like I had just been turned on with too much power.

For better or for worse, Margot is becoming a different person. The incessant demands of her two lovers has both exhausted and exhilarated her, while sparking an artistic resurgence like she's never experienced before.

Can it stay like that forever? As the stakes rise higher and higher, is she growing into someone new or just being devoured by two alpha males, one piece at a time?
