“Can you help me find my way home?” asked Dorothy. But the beautiful witch could not help her. She told Dorothy to follow the yellow brick road. It would lead her to Emerald City where she could ask the great Wizard of Oz for help.

Based on the original L. Frank Baum's classic, this newly illustrated picture book is perfect for sharing with pre-and beginning readers. It's full of bright colorful pictures and short enough to hold their attention. This retelling even includes scenes like the giant evil spider and the land of porcelain dolls rarely seen from the original book The Wonderful Wizard of Oz.
