Angel and the Drifter (Farm Girl First Times Book 5) Fannie Tucker

After taking a bus to Hollywood straight out of high school, innocent young Angel McKown learns the hard truth about the world when her dreams of becoming an actress crash and burn. When the Wyoming native returns to her small hometown on the edge of the Rockies to rebuild her life, she's stuck waitressing in a local bar.

Kyle Voss returned from Iraq to find his old life swept away. Roaming the western United States, he seems to be looking for trouble. When Kyle takes on three burly roughnecks to save Angel from a bad situation, the two find themselves running into the night a step ahead of the local deputies and an angry mob. In a lonesome valley beneath a starry sky, Angel realizes that she's put herself in the hands of a stranger about whom she knows nothing.

When desires flare, an innocent young woman must decide whether to give a haunted man something to live for. Something she's never given to anyone.

Warning: This 6,600-word romantic short story contains explicit adult content, including a soft-spoken Texan losing control as he deflowers an innocent young woman!
