Community Spanish For Law Enforcement Field Guide Pablo P. Madera, Arthur Natella

Spanish is rapidly becoming an unofficial second language in the United States. The Community Spanish for Law Enforcement Field Guide contains direct translations for the most common terms and phrases law enforcement officers may need on the street and features comprehensive, easy-to-follow dialogues for many common situations. Translations are organized by incident and crime type. Durable, water-resistant, and compact, this field guide is a convenient and ideal tool for officers who do not have formal language training and for those who need a readily accessible refresher.
