Sidney suffered a tragic loss two years ago. She thought that allowing Gavin into her life--even if it was only for a night--was the key to moving on. Gavin suffered his own loss two years ago and put himself in a self-imposed prison of being unable--or unwilling--to feel anything again. With so much pain in their pasts, can the two ever see beyond their own broken hearts to find love again? Recommended for adults only. Steamy scenes and coarse language. This is the second part of a three-part series.
