Global Restructuring, State, Capital and Labour: Contesting Neo-Gramscian Perspectives (International Political Economy Series) A. Bieler, W. Bonefeld, P. Burnham, A. Morton

This book provides a critical engagement between contending historical materialist approaches that have played a crucial role in shaping post-positivist International Relations theory. It analyzes globalization as a process of state formation and argues that its fate depends on the neo-liberal recomposition of labour relations. .
