In The Deep Blue Ocean Margareth Debrosse

As you peruse the pages of this collection of poetry, one thing that is noticeable is the unique style and habitual set of techniques and elements used by this poet to bring the reader a perception of her turbulent life, perseverance, hope, love, and her faith in the Power that is. To share her existence via her experiences, she believes that everyone has an internal need to live deeply and fully and with great awareness. Therefore, this poet from her own boutique of felt, observed, and imagined experiences creates significant new experiences in which the reader can participate and obtain greater awareness and understanding of his/her own reality.
