One late winter afternoon Penny Crawford sat down on a park bench....and her life was never again the same. This is the remarkable story of the profound transformation of Penny's life and the secret of what happened on that park bench. A middle-aged cashier at Wal-Mart, Penny Crawford led a dismal existence. Everyone she loved had left her. Her financial situation was bleak. She suffered from numerous physical ailments. She had no social life. And then one day she sat down on a park bench....and everything changed. Hers is a story of radical transformation brought on by a secret she learned from a mysterious old man. Her dreams had all died but they came alive again after utilizing what the mysterious old man taught her. But when they came back alive they were very different. Indeed, Penny herself was very different......
