How to Become Fluent in Spanish by Telling Stories

In this book, John Del Gaudio explains how he learned children's stories by heart to tell to his friends' kids when he lived in Mexico and Colombia. In doing so, even though he was already fluent, he greatly enhanced his communication skills in Spanish and became an instant hit with the kids and their parents. He provides you ten fairy tales and shows you step-by-step how to learn and polish them to perfection. If you follow his advice here, you will make great progress towards mastering the language and creating personal relationships.

Telling stories is a great way to learn a language because you can use a good story in many social situations, and it creates bonds and connections with those around you.
