Charlotte has always been a woman who played by the rules; however, after she catches her younger sister and long time lover in bed together her perfectly planned life is turned upside down. What does Nicholas Elliot do when a beautiful woman with a tempting mouth saunters into his office to interview for a secretary position? He offers her the position, obviously, and then gives her what every other woman in his life wants, his love. Nicholas Elliot, Upper East Side, prep boy has always succeeded at acquiring his heart's desires, being born into a life of luxury nothing has ever been withheld from him; still, he yearns for something more when the only woman he's ever allowed to get close to him is out of his reach. And, what happens when Nicholas and Charlotte's feelings start to surpass mutual friendship? Well, that's a winter's tale
