Some lines should never be crossed...

Thirty-year old, math teacher Keisha Johnson is tired of being used and abused by her ghetto fabulous students and being thrown shade behind her back by her scandalous ass co-workers. There is only so much hard-working Keisha can take before the shit hits the fan and she finds herself without a job.

Forced to find a new teaching gig, she winds up in a place where she never thought she would be; an all white school.

But being the only black faculty member is far from Keisha's only problem as something as simple as teaching math to her students, becomes incredibly difficult under the burning fires of temptation!

This book contains adult situations and mature themes. Reader's discretion is advised.
