What Is David Bradford Jr

What Is follow four characters (a lunar month, a cuttlefish, a hippocampus, and a sea cucumber) during a casual encounter with a rafting centaur in the open seas. They discuss the philosophical goal of achieving happiness by ones owns means, without blaming other forces for any unhappiness. It is twelve stanzas of four lines each, having a rhyme scheme of A, A, B, B per stanza. Each line has been given its own page and has had that line 'split' at points which tries to preserve the intent (the pacing) of each line, and thus, each stanza is its own chapter.
