The Celestial Handbook is a handsomely produced work, every bit in keeping with Dover's high-quality standards... Lecturers, teachers, and public service astronomers will delve time and again into its weighty essays for solid, complete, material for their work. But the Celestial Handbook is truly the observer's vademecum. For to him above all, Burnham says, "We are beginning a journey." STAR & SKY. "This delightful, immensely useful, and profusely illustrated book... contains a wealth of information on celestial objects... One of the rare works that is useful for everyone interested in astronomy, amateur as well as professional... CHOICE
