This short book consist of stories about two great kings of their time, King David and King Solomon, how Kind David slay the giant and became the wise king. King Solomon was gifted with the knowledge of understanding the speech of birds, animals and insects. He was also capable to talk to them. He was also given the power over Jinns and Devils. He utilized them in his service. They carried out his orders ungrudgingly and were punished when they became rebellious. King Solomon was the youngest son of the King David. He was born at Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Saba. As he was a talented fellow with versatile gifts, his father made him his heir. After the death of King David he ascended the throne of Judia on account of his wisdom, power of judgment, right understanding and spiritual insight.
